What is Centered-Soul leadership?

Centered-Soul leadership flows from an inner center of confidence, calm, creativity, and compassion. This happens as we connect to God, to community, and to our true, Spirit-led selves. Without a centered soul, vision and hard work often lead to soul weariness and burnout, even when they produce external success. The life-giving path of Centered-Soul leadership integrates growing intimacy with God and strategic leadership. This creates energy and space for full engagement in the unique good for which you were born.
